Our Mission

At Medical Billing we are focused on one mission: to collect the maximum revenue for your private practice as efficiently as possible while helping to reduce costs and alleviate hassle for our clients freeing up time for clinical activities.

Experience

Our experience to date has been that doctors have a significant number of claims-pending, rejected or unrecognised- but many don't have the time to sort out historic claims and thus unwittingly lose a percentage of their income. The graph below shows how quickly someone with a 90% recovery rate builds up an outstanding balance, which Medical Billing will pursue on your behalf.

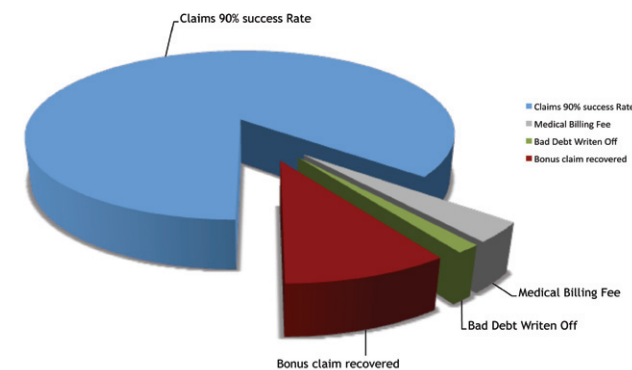

Medical Billing reduces that possibility because we focus on your claim tracking and management, which allows you, the Consultant, to focus on your clinical practice. In our experience, the above alone more than covers the cost of our service and additionally frees time and removes a layer of unnecessary administrative work from the consultant.
